

The Good Book Group

March 2018

The Double Life of Mistress Kit Kavanagh

certainly got us talking. Opinions were varied. Some people had really loved the book and others had found it interesting. We agreed that it was a "page turner" but no one felt that they wanted to read more of Marina Fiorato's books.

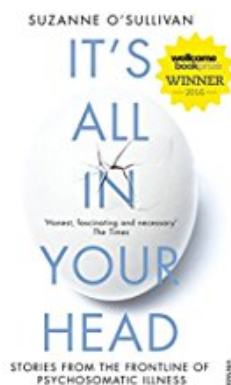

Some people are well ahead and have read April's book already. April's meeting should have some good discussion on the book which is set in Glasgow.

APRIL

Eleanor Oliphant is completely fine
by Gail Honeyman chosen Susan H.

MAY

For May we are reading a non fiction book for a change. Kimy has chosen it.

It's All in Your Head
by
Suzanne O'Sullivan

Other Good Reads

Happy Reading