

AN OLD KIRK COMMUNITY PROJECT

THE PILGRIM'S PATHWAY PROJECT

Kilmacolm's Woodland Oasis of Peace and Tranquility

The Old Kirk's Pilgrim's Pathway Project will establish a beautiful garden blessed with glorious woodland, flowing water and native wildlife. The project will create a carefully considered pathway which will lead to purposely designed areas offering privacy and time for meditation and reflection.

Set in grounds of the Old Kirk Manse, the pathway will offer an experience that is both spiritual in tone and rejuvenating in space - a true oasis of peace and tranquility. Holistic in nature, it will provide the opportunity to bring essential benefits to those seeking to improve their overall health and well-being by exploring and developing their sense of mind, body and spirit. Visitors will experience a sheltered, wooded environment bringing relaxation, calm and moments of escape from their day to day activities.

Open to all, the pathway will have its roots deeply established in the village's ancient local history. And as well as the individual experience, the Pilgrim's Pathway will also bring groups from all ages and backgrounds together to enhance relationships, collaborate on projects, to benefit from volunteering, to learn and grow together.

The Pilgrim's Pathway - an Old Kirk project in the heart of the beautiful village of Kilmacolm.
